

Teaching Drumming to Head Start Children Bid

Job: Must have good communication skills. Contractor must be able to work with Head Start children to teach the children traditional drum songs. Contractor must be patient. Contractor must be willing to record songs for Head Start children to practice with contractor is not available.

You must be able to provide all supplies, for example, drum, until the Head Start drum is completed. All contractors and/or subcontractors must be willing to file a W-9 with the tribe. Contractor will be paid upon submission of invoice. Contractor will be requested to be on-site weekly when children are present until the end of December.

All Bids must be sealed and submitted to Jill Miller, Head Start Administrative Assistant or dropped off at the Bad River Head Start

Bids will be received until 4:00pm on November 10, 2016